TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Home in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.

Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-

WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an environmental reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnitude of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the West-house air-brake.

It is positively the only line running

Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping

Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or comfort. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that the "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. Barrett, Southern Passenger Agent, Post-Office Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

MASQUERADE BALL.—As was conprojector of the Masquerade Ball, it passed off with éclat. The disguises were in many cases complete, and the characters were well acted. The John-Humpty Dumpty. Nothing happening to mar the pleasure of the evening, the participants dispersed during the wee CAUGHT AT LAST.—A dispatch was received by Capt. Fitzgerald from W.

W. Cranes, Chief of Police of Macon, Ga., on the first of the month, requesting the arrest of James McCray, a swindler, who it was supposed was making his way North. The dispatch when first received was shown to Mr.
Sellers, who was requested to look out for the man. Last night he saw a man who answered to the description given in the dispatch, and being satisfied that it was the person in question, he arrested and turned him over to the city authorities. When apprehended the man said his name was John McGowan, afterwards Pat McGowan, and the last name he gives is Denis McGowan. He is undoubtedly the James McCray alluded to, or else he is so very much like him that they can't tell apart.

—Good-bye old 1873. Bring on the new year.

—Judge Clould preserves order in the Court House.
—The mask ball last night was a perfect success, and reflected much credit upon the management.

—The Virginians came toward our port, with the ill fate of the Cuba. No wonder sailors are superstitious.

—We wish a Happy New Year to all our patrons. May the coming year be brighter, happier and busier than the old one.

—The fire alarm at 7 o'clock last night was caused by the burning of the stables of Bishop Atkinson. The carriages, etc., were burned though the horses were saved. It is not known how the fire originated.

THE First Colored Free Will (or Wash-Fect) Baptist Church of Wilmington, N. C., was organized on Sixth street, between Church and Castle, on Monday evening, 29th Dec'r, by Elder I. W. King and Rev. Samuel B. Foy.—
The following are the Church officers: Samuel B. Foy, Pastor; Henry Cherry, first Deacon; Henderson Davis, Secretary; Henry Davis, first Ruling Elder; G. A. Campbell, second Ruling Elder.
The funds of the Church are to be deposited in the Freedmen's Savings Bank.

CRUEL.—Recently our good Sheriff was the victim of a very cruel and unintentional sell. It is too good to pass unnoticed. A little colored boy, with a note, grasped tight with both hands, rushed into his office in a breathless state and asked, between his gasps for breath, if "de Sheriff was there." The note was read, and conveyed the information that the writer had business of the "utmost importance to communicate to him," and requested him to call immediately. The Sheriff informed his deputies of the note, and after binding them over to secrecy, he started, leading himself with handcuffs, etc., in search of the informant.

Like Hamlet's ghost, he thought the writer of the note could "a tale unfold," and convey important information bearing directly upon the Carter murder, a band of thieves, etc., and trod for half an hour through the deepest sand, all absorbed in the joyous anticipation of capturing thieves or bringing into light something which has been kept in obscurity for years. All things earthly must come to an end, and his long and sandy walk and joyous anticipations must cease. Entering the domicile, he pricked his ears, and waited in a state of breathless anxiety to have the important news revealed to him. The informant placidly looked over his or her specs, informed the Sheriff that he or she had sent for him to let him know that he or she had paid his or her last year's taxes, and wanted to know when he or she would have to settle for 1874.
He returned to his office, and disgust-ingly threw his load of brackets into their accustomed place. The deputies wouldn't be bound to secrecy this time, and tell it on the Sheriff very much to his annoyance.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Organize! Organize!!

What is the Republican party doing towards organization for the campaign shortly to be upon us?

While our political foes are at work like beavers, in every by-path and hedge-way, and while every step is being taken, not a moment is being lost; the Republican party of North Carolina stands unconcerned and unimpressed with the momentous events, every day transpiring around them; with listless apathy we are moving on towards our certain doom, unless we wake up to a realization of the dangers that now surround us.

"Time enough yet," is the fatal rock upon which many a party, with prospects fair and brilliant have often wrecked. Shall we in this section content ourselves with but the semblance of safety, and slowly but surely move on to our political deaths? What a tremendous responsibility rests upon the party in the coming canvass? What momentous interests are at stake to the citizens of North Carolina, the laboring and the humble man who constitute the bone and sinew of the land, and the pride and strength of the Republican party.

This district will be judged either by a Republican who will administer justice to all men regardless of race, color or condition, or by a democrat, opposed to the Constitution of the United States; opposed to the amendments to that Constitution; opposed to the Constitution of North Carolina, most especially its benign homestead; opposed to civil or equal rights, and who stand upon the Gov. Graham platform of "white man's party," which means nothing else but "white man's country."

This congressional district will be represented by a representative man of the laboring classes, who can have influence with the republican administration, for good to this section, or by a man of "salary grab" propensities, opposed unalterably to the vital interest and dearest rights of the colored men of the South.

The success of the democratic party in North Carolina will be but the beginning of untold evils to the Republican party. To the white element of that party nothing is promised, in the event of democratic success, save and except abuse and proscription, hatred and malice; and the colored portion of the Republican party, whose right to vote is now secretly denied by the masses of the democratic party, whose dearest wish is to strip them of their rights as freemen, may look for and expect nothing from this party of "wealth, intelligence and chivalry," but the most outrageous discrimination against, and the most high handed oppression of them.

In a word, the success of this intolerant and malignant party promises to us a fate most horrible to contemplate. As an evidence of this, see the actions of the dominant party in Legislature assembled. See their high-handed partisan course in making desperate party measures into laws upon our statute books.

See with what little regard or consideration the Republican party was treated from the President of the Senate down to the humblest colored member?
No one can have failed to note these things, and no one can have failed to note the movements of the Democratic party, and to divine their intentions, in the event of success.

Then let us shake off a lethargy so unbecoming a great and heretofore victorious party. Let us begin in time to close up the gap in our ranks; stand shoulder to shoulder, thoroughly organized and be ready, so that in the election next Summer, add another to the list of glorious victories, all the machinations and schemes of our political foes to the contrary notwithstanding. X.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

—OF THE—
WILMINGTON MARKETS.

CRUDE TURPENTINE.—This article is without change for the week.— The fluctuations of the manufactured article has had no effect upon the Crude as would be supposed. The receipts for the week foot up 1,323 barrels, which were placed on still yards as usual.— The market closes quiet and steady at $2 for Hard, and $2 95 for Yellow Dip.

TAR.—This market opened quiet but weak at $2 20, the closing quotations of our last compendium, and on Saturday suffered a decline of 5 cents. Since then there has been no change, and we quote the market quiet and dull at $2 15.— The receipts for the week foot up $12 bbls. against 880 bbls. of our last.

SPRITS TURPENTINE opened weak at 33 cents, and on Saturday the market showed further weakness, 37 1/2 cents being the best could be gotten. On Monday 38 cents was bid. Since then no change has been noted, the market closing dull at 38 cents. The receipts for the week foot up 1223 casks against 1963 casks of last week.

ROSIN.—There has been a good shipping demand for this article during the week, though the feeling is not as firm as at the close of our last review. The market opened on Friday at $2 20 for C, (delivered,) and on Saturday it evinced a still easier feeling, with a falling off of 5 cents in price. Monday the feeling was as on Saturday. Tuesday a better feeling was manifested, sales being effected at $2 15 for C, and continued to the close of our review. The receipts for the week foot up 10,776 bbls.

COTTON.—Notwithstanding the heavy receipts at all points, the market has continued firm, with a good demand and an advancing tendency, though, however, the inertia which always characterizes this staple during the last week of the year is now apparent in Northern markets, the merchants being more disposed to settle up old accounts rather than enter into any new speculation involving a large amount of money. The receipts for the past week are said to be much larger in some places than any previous week in their history as a cotton port, and the stock on hand at ports and estimated crop, is much larger than that of 1871-72.

The New York Financial Chronicle in a lengthy article upon the subject of the cotton crop for 1872-73, after fully reviewing the receipts at all cotton ports and reviewing their status as compared with previous years, arrives at the following conclusion: In preparing our estimate we have given the results in the form of receipts at the out ports rather than the production of each State, believing that this is a more natural way to present the facts, and further that it enables our readers to make comparisons now and though the season which could not otherwise be made. Of course we do not claim infallibility; we are liable to error as others are; but at same time we may say that the care we have bestowed upon the subject enables us to feel the greatest confidence in the results we have reached. We should add that in no case except Mobile have we given the largest estimate we have received of the receipts at any port named, and hence our total does not represent an outside figure. For the overland receipts and Southern consumption, we simply repeat the totals of last year. With these explanations we furnish the estimate we have made and the crop statements of the three previous years for comparison.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year.

THE ALDINE.

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original contribution—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a high reputation, and the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of steel plates is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality and greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and character of the finest of costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to compare the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy the most beautiful and pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. Woodard.

The Christmas issue for 1873 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos.
The illustrations will be by the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for the National Academy. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view of the White Mountains, New Hampshire, and the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Colorado Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos each were worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size 12 x 10 inches, representing exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painting to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is entirely due to the skillful management, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20th, 1873.
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & CO., Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the prospectus of your chromo of your chromo, and wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

(Signed) THOS. MORAN.
These chromos are in every sense American.
They are by an original American process, with a native American subject, and are from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither can any the worse if by reason of peculiar factories of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while the equal in every other other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE.

Any subscribers who desire these pictures for themselves—not for the price they are did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.
If any subscribers who desire these pictures for reference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and valuable chromo, 14 x 10 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.
$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscribers must be sent to the publishers direct, or the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers. In cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & CO., NEWARK, N. J., the price will be $3 each.

Any person wishing to act personally as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAMES SUTTON & CO., Publishers,

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it so large a circulation, and which we will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the world will be found in it, in a clear, unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, and containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.
It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.
It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knives, and asks no favors from its supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.
For a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. Sent by mail, for one year, $3.00. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. To clubs of 50 or over, a discount of 30 per cent.
